

Tickets are selling well for
The Clink Ball
Friday 3rd February 2023
but we could do with your support too.

The Clink Charity is delighted to announce that tickets for the 2023 Awards Dinner are now available here

Taking place on Friday 3rd February 2023, the night of fun and philanthropy will raise crucial funds to support the charity's work in reducing reoffending rates through delivering hospitality training in prison and helping and supporting prisoners upon release to find accommodation and full-time employment.

Previous charity balls have seen the amount raised increase year on year and the events have now raised a combined total of over £200,000.

Guests will enjoy a four-course menu using locally sourced ingredients, entertainment from The Executives, an on line auction and table raffle with fabulous prizes generously donated by our sponsors. Clink graduates will also tell us how the scheme has helped transform their lives. The occasion will also help to further promote The Clink's training projects across His Majesty's Prison Estate.

The Clink Group Restaurant Ambassador and Chairman of the Ball Committee, Vic Laws MBE said "I am delighted that we can hold the charity ball at the Royal Lancaster again and we are back to our usual date after the pandemic. During that time, The Clink Charity has suffered from not being able to open the restaurants thus restricting the ability to support all of our graduates. We hope that many will support our charity ball as a good way of raising money for us and seeing and hearing about the achievements of our graduates, whilst having an enjoyable evening. However, this couldn't take place without the support of our sponsors, Bidfood, Booker, HIT Training and Johnsons Hotel Linen.

We know that things have been very difficult for our sponsors but we are pleased that they are able to support us once again. Please join us and help raise funds to keep up the important work that has been achieved over the last 12 years."

Individual tickets to the ball are priced at £140 per person or a table of 10 can be purchased for £1300. To book tickets, please visit here

About The Clink Charity

The Clink Charity breaks the cycle of crime by changing attitudes both inside and outside of the prison, creating second chances and transforming lives whilst reducing reoffending rates for the benefit of society. The prisoners at each of The Clink Restaurants and other Clink training projects volunteer to be trained to gain their City & Guilds National Vocational Qualifications and are supported upon release into fulltime employment and accommodation which dramatically reduces reoffending rates and helps the hospitality industry that has a major skills shortage.
